

Grande Provence

Tucked away among the vineyards of Franschhoek, Grande Provence Heritage Wine Estate offers an exceptional hospitality experience for the world's most discerning travellers.

With numerous activities and exclusive travel packages, here guests can relax, recuperate and find tranquillity without straying too far from the madding crowd. Welcoming, attentive staff and meticulous attention to detail make both The Owner's Cottage and La Provencale a home away from home in one of the cultural hubs of the Western Cape. Just a stone's throw from The Owner's Cottage and La Provencale awaits The Restaurant where guests can enjoy the epitome of fine dining, while The Gallery at Grande Provence is home to some of South Africa's finest contemporary works of art. The Owners Cottage exudes contemporary luxury. This beautiful private cottage comprises four rooms, a de-luxe suite, conservatory, lounge, swimming and a spa pool area, beckoning visitors to enjoy every indulgence it has to offer. At La Provencale guests are accommodated in style with two en suite bedrooms separated for privacy by a shared lounge, making it ideal for families or a holiday with close friends. The lounge leads directly to a beautiful outdoor terrace and swimming pool surrounded by spectacular views and the lush vines of the estate. Grande Provence offers various seasonal accommodation packages, catering to every need. It is the ideal choice for romantic getaways and has everything the leisure or business traveller could desire for a country escape. The Restaurant at Grande Provence continues to woo guests one plate at a time with creative menus and unforgettable culinary experiences. By making use of the best seasonal produce, executive chef Darren Badenhorst is set on creating perfection on every plate, down to the last micro herb. At The Gallery a visual feast awaits. This superb space is home to pieces from some of South Africa's leading contemporary artists and flows into the Sculpture Garden. Exhibitions are held throughout the year. With a myriad of activities, Franschhoek appeals to all tastes. Apart from its natural splendour, this French-inspired village offers spectacular dining experiences, superb wines and exclusive shops. Adventurers can explore hiking trails and fly fishing or paragliding sports, while select antique shops, The Franschhoek Motor Museum and Huguenot Memorial Museum give a glimpse of yesteryear. To book your accommodation at Grande Provence Heritage Wine Estate, visit www.grandeprovence.co.za, call Vera Alberts on 021 876 8600 or email ownerscottage@grandeprovence.co.za.

Sip on a glass of Grande Provence Chenin Blanc Voignier while taking in the beautiful surroundings

This bedroom exudes contemporary luxury

The Jonkershuis, an elegant extension to Grande Provence boasts beautiful architectural qualities – in particular the high exposed timber ceilings

A beautiful view of Grande Provence La Provencale

The Restaurant at Grande Provence offers unforgettable culinary experiences

Honey bavaris spiced honey pot, hazelnut meringue, wild rose apple, almonds and vanilla crumble

Saddle of lamb variations, minted pea, dukkha-crusted butternut confit, pearl onions, porcini jus