

Must Do

Bookworms Unite

The seventh annual Knysna Literary Festival will take place from 17 to 20 March 2016. This four-day event promises an enthralling programme of current affairs, politics, history, and adventure, focusing on best-selling local and international authors, who will entertain and delight audiences with readings, conversations, debates, and workshops. A children's interactive programme will include a theatre and the annual Young Writers' Award, a creative writing competition for various age groups which attracts entries in English, Afrikaans, and isiXhosa. The line-up of authors include musical legend Hugh Masekela, award-winning poet Finuala Dowling, and celebrity chef Pete Goffe-Wood. For more information, visit www.knysnaliteraryfestival.co.za.

Picnic in Style

Located in picturesque Franschhoek, Grande Provence Heritage Wine Estate embraces an incredible wine heritage as well as top-class accommodation and dining. Running until the end of April, Grande Provence invites patrons to soak up the summer sun with a rustic, French-style picnic under the oaks at their beautiful estate. Prepared by Executive Chef, Darren Badenhorst, guests can expect a range of artisanal foodie delights and French flair as well as delicious local wine. By request, picnic goers can add to their brimming baskets of tasty morsels and the likes of rabbit liver parfait, wild mushroom quiches and rose and white chocolate macaroons are all on offer. Baskets are R245 per person and are limited so be sure to book! Bookings can be made on email restaurant@grandeprovence.co.za or by calling +27 21 876 8600.

Jammin' in Jozi

Sowing the Seeds Music & Lifestyle Festival and Seed Experiences are proud and excited to announce two world-class international acts, Of Monsters and Men, and Jungle, as the headliners of the festival taking place at Emmarentia Dam in Johannesburg on 2 April 2016. The festival, which began in Cape Town in 2008, was originally a teaser to the massively popular Rocking the Daisies festival, but soon grew in popularity. Following the success of both, the demand from muso's and festival-lovers in Johannesburg became apparent, so the Sowing the Seeds Music & Lifestyle Festival spread its wings and came to Jozi. For more information, visit www.sowingtheseeds.co.za.